In considering church school admission applications, priority is given to those who can prove a long-standing and regular pattern of attendance for worship at a public place of worship as defined in the school's Admission Policy. Some schools make a distinction between attendance of Parent(s)/Carer(s) and attendance of the child (see the school's Admissions Policy).

The Parent(s)/Carer(s) should complete the details below at EITHER Section 1(a) OR 1(b) and then ask their Minister of Religion to countersign the form as Section 2.
